Patriot Technologies Awarded Supplier of the Year Distinction from Sourcefire

Commitment to quality, customer service and accountability cited as criteria for winning

Frederick, MD June 17, 2010 — Patriot Technologies, the trusted source for comprehensive IT security solutions, appliance manufacturing and logistical support services, has been selected as the Sourcefire Inc. Supplier of the Year. The award was presented at a Patriot company-wide function in May 2010.

“As a world leader in cyber security solutions, Sourcefire demands the highest levels of performance from its suppliers,” said Martijn de Boer, VP of Logistics at Sourcefire. “Patriot Technologies has demonstrated an outstanding level of commitment to quality, customer service and accountability as a trusted advisor and manufacturer for our purpose-built appliance.”

Sourcefire reviewed the performance of its supply chain partners and ultimately deemed Patriot Technologies as the winner. “This award means a great deal to every employee of our company,” said Steve Keefe, President, Strategic Appliance and Logistics Solutions at Patriot Technologies. “Being recognized by Sourcefire with this award confirms our attitude and commitment to customer service and quality.”
